

feel great all over

Wherever you go, you want to look and feel incredible from head to toe—without spending an arm and a leg! We've made that goal easy. Our cross-country search for the best spa deals in America took us east (Boston) and west (San Francisco), to spots both swanky (big-name salons) and no-frills (beauty schools). The common denominator? They're all unbelievable treats.

Behold, 39 spa treatments for your body's every region.

head & hair

Relaxing scalp massages, head-turning cuts and blowouts: Nurture your top tier at rock-bottom prices.

Philadelphia

Free haircut

An appointment with a senior stylist at the posh spot Pierre & Carlo Salon can run you $65, but make an appointment with a trainee and you'll get your strands snipped for nothing. (Multiple locations including 200 S. Broad St., pierreandcarlo.com, 215-790-9910)

Miami

$15 scalp massage with snacks

Many salons offer scalp massages in neck-craning chairs by the sink. (Ouch.) Not so at Aqua Day Spa, where you'll be ushered into a tranquil room to have your head's pressure points kneaded. Bonus: Snack on butter cookies with green tea or red wine. (10864 S.W. 104th St., aquadayspa.com, 305-595-5118)

Chicago

Free haircut

Head to the modern, industrial Tirra Salon & Spa on a Wednesday and a salon assistant will cut and dry your hair for free. Secure your freebie by calling at least a week in advan ots fill up fast. (375 W. Erie St., tirrasalonspa.com, 312-951-8255)

Des Moines

$4 scalp massage

At the no-frills Tuscany Day Spa, part of La James International College, students perform all treatments on the cheap. A rejuvenating quickie like the half-hour scalp rub costs less than a latte! (375 W. Erie St., tirrasalonspa.com, 312-951-8255)

Tupelo, MS

$26 blowout

Humidity? Ha! Stylists at The Creative Touch Day Spa and Salon kill frizz with kindness. (2613-A Traceland Drive, creativetouch.us, 662-844-3734)

Paul Mitchell The School

Denver

$25 haircut (with cocktails)

On May 23, funky salon Blondies The Beauty Shop will host its monthly Cocktail Cuts Night: Enjoy tunes, martinis and shrimp cocktail while you get your hair done. (563 Detroit St., blondiesdenver.com, 303-377-5313)

Salt Lake City

$7 deep-conditioning treatment

At Paul Mitchell The School, get the conditioning treatment with a blowout: You'll fend off compliments for days. (1969 E. Murray Holladay Road, 801-266-4693)

San Francisco

$30 head massage

Treat yourself to a half-hour head rub at U2 Beauty Health Center. Keep the easy vibe going by sipping tea in a cushy recliner. (3940 Geary Blvd., u2feet.com, 415-386-6628; cash only)

Bring It Home

Mint refreshes your breath, sure, but spa pros use the essential oil to rev up your extremities—namely, your scalp and feet. Try the Super Minty Soap'n Scrub ($30, blissworld.com).

Pomfret Center, CT

$60 deluxe hand and foot package

Take friends to the holistic Pomfret Healing Center & Spa: Groups of three or more score a half hour of reflexology, plus a foot soak and a paraffin hand dip for $60 per person. Be sure to milk every penny by taking a dip in the outdoor Jacuzzi. (79 Mashamoquet Road, pomfretcenterspa.com, 860-963-0846)

Pho-Siam Thai Spa

hands & feet

A basic mani-pedi combo can set you back about $50. Hit up these spots and watch your money go further.

New York City

$15 foot massage with green-tea powder

Huffing it in the concrete jungle? Take a break at Tamago Skincare, a sparse spa specializing in Japanese techniques. A pro will rub your weary feet with sweet-smelling green tea powder for $1 a minute (15 minutes minimum) between downtown shopping jaunts. (251 E. 13th St., tamago-skincare.com, 212-505-1599)

Atlanta

$5 manicure

The International School of Skin & Nail Care has a more sterile than spa-like atmosphere. But the students are careful and conscientious—and you can get professionally painted nails for 50 cents a digit. So there. (5600 Roswell Road NE, skin-nails.com, 404-843-1005)

Cincinnati

$20 exfoliating pedicure and foot massage

Allow extra time for services at the Tri-County Beauty College. Because they're being supervised, the students take their time and give your tootsies plenty of TLC, sometimes for more than an hour. (155 Northland Blvd., 513-671-8340)

Seattle

$32 pedicure (with champagne and sliders!)

Treat yourself to a half-hour pedi at the Spaahh at Hotel 1000 any day between 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in May or June, and you'll score a free glass of champagne and an appetizer from the restaurant upstairs. We like the short-rib sliders. (1000 First Ave., hotel1000seattle.com/spa.html, 206-357-9490)

Los Angeles

$40 reflexology

Take a load off on an Asian-style floor mat as a massage therapist at the serene Pho-Siam Thai Spa applies heavenly pressure to your peds for a full, luxurious hour. (1525 Pizarro St., phosiam.com, 213-484-8484)

face

Save cash while saving face. These spas show love to your most-seen part—and your wallet.

Boston

$20 paraffin eye treatment

Layover at Logan? No problem. Depuff your eyes in the Jetsetter Spa, near JetBlue and United airlines. The 20-minute treatment seems to take off years. (Logan International Airport: Terminal C, Upper Level, jetsetterspa.com, 617-567-7979)

Chapel Hill, NC

$40 exfoliating facial

The Aveda Institute Chapel Hill feels like an upscale spa (tea service, candles, amazingly good smells), but the treatments are given by—and priced for—students. The hour-long custom facial includes exfoliation and either a mask or a face massage, depending on your skin type. (200 West Franklin St., avedachapelhill.com, 919-960-4769)

Detroit, MI

$26 brow shaping with wine and snacks

Getting your brows plucked is a lot easier to bear on Thursday nights at 6 Salon. Nosh on appetizers (like toasted ravioli) and sip wine while a DJ spins hot beats until midnight. (multiple locations including 306 W. Sixth St., Royal Oak, sixsalon.com, 248-398-1586)

Birmingham

$35 facial with custom mask

Sonia Tutuwan, a former nurse, runs the Changes Salon Spa & Wellness Center. Her 30-minute facials are designed to give your skin what it craves. (1210 32nd St. North, naturalhairandskin.com, 205-254-6959)

Dallas

$65 facial peel with a personal grocery shopper

Unwind in the first-ever Spa by Whole Foods Market, a soundproof space upstairs from

Bring It Home

The French spritz sheets with lavender; you can find the calming herb in face and body lotions and the Red Flower French Lavender Candle ($34, beauty.com).

the retail store. While you settle in for a 50-minute fruit-acid peel, a store concierge will buy your groceries. (11700 Preston Road, wholefoodsmarket.com, 214-363-9760)

Boise, ID

$40 therapeutic facial, plus a limo ride

The Panache Hair Studio & Day Spa's 30-minute facial targets problem zones. Bring friends: Groups that spend $300 or more can ride to and from the hotel in the spa's limo. (1115 N. Cole Road, panachespaboise.com, 208-377-3300)

Mesa, AZ

$49 facial

Plunk down at Fuchsia's for the 50-minute facial. Then hang out awhile in the spa's pink lounge, watching episodes of Grey's Anatomy. (1854 S. Val Vista, Suite 108, fuchsiaspaspa.com, 480-813-7465; rate for new customers, regular price $75)

Charlotte, NC

$40 Swedish /massage

Settle in for an hour at Zen Massage Center, a funky old house in the historic Dilworth district. (1021 E. Boulevard, zencharlotte.com, 704-342-0996)

Gainesville, FL

$28 personalized massage

On Thursdays and Saturdays, a

Oklahoma City

$15 aromatherapy massage

The pros at Eden Salon & Spa will blend a custom scent from 12 oils—such as citrus and ginger—and then apply the brew to knead your knots. At just a dollar a minute (with a 15-minute minimum), it's a real steal. (500 W. Main St., edensalon.com, 405-231-4772)

Los Lunas, NM

$60 hot-stone massage

A massage therapist will place hot stones on your spine and rub you down for an hour at the adobe Almost Heaven Spa. Then lounge in your robe among the spa's piñon trees. (651 N. Los Lentes Road, almostheavenspa.net, 505-565-8089)

Flagstaff, AZ

$39 trigger-point massage

At Massage Envy, heated tables and a trigger-point technique tag team rub out your deepest knots in 50 blissful minutes. (1235 South Plaza Way, massageenvy.com, 928-526-3689; rate for new customers, regular price $65)

Corona, CA

$35 soak and bake package

Do it yourself! For the price of a nice dinner, you'll have free reign over Glen Ivy Hot Springs Spa's six acres, which includes 16 pools, natural hot springs, steam rooms and a sauna, plus an outdoor mud bath where you can slather yourself from head to toe with red clay and "bake" until dry. (25000 Glen Ivy Road, glenivy.com, 888-453-6489; $48 on weekends) body

These body treatments—like muscle-melting massages and invigorating scrubs—pamper every inch without breaking the bank.

top to bottom

Really want to treat yourself? These big, fabulous—and affordable—packages are tickets to total-body satisfaction.

Watertown, MA

$190 essentials spa package

A massage, facial, paraffin wax treatment and manicure-spa-pedicure combo add up to four decadent hours at the Tranquility Day Spa. For another $20, Donna, a massage therapist, will give you a tarot card reading. (15 Spring St., watertownspa.com, 617-924-1026)

Blue Ridge, GA

$275 girlfriends' weekend

Grab four of your best buds and head to Serenity in the Mountains, an elegant lodge in Northern Georgia. The girlfriends package includes a facial, a massage and a mani-pedi, plus two nights' lodging with breakfast, a private wine and cheese party and $100 credit at a nearby restaurant. (59 McKinney Road, serenityinthemountains.com, 706-258-2244)

Racine, WI

$285 dawn-to-dusk pampering

You'll feel at home at the friendly Headlines Hair Design Studio and Day Spa. Good thing, because this day is seven hours long and includes a facial, massage, mani-pedi, makeup application and lunch. (1139 Blaine Ave., headlinesofracine.com, 262-636-1900)

Portland, OR

$165 whole-body overhaul

Spa Willamina, tucked in the basement of a 1920s bungalow, has thoughtful touches, including an pebble-inlaid shower. The May special combines a massage, facial, scalp treatment and a floral foot treatment—two-and-a-half hours of bliss. (2223 N.E. 43rd Ave., spawillamina.com, 503-287-2787; special, regularly $235)

Las Vegas

$25 spa day pass

Skip the slot machines and spend your dough at The Spa at Wynn Las Vegas. Detox in the eucalyptus steam room, or settle in for a soak in the shell-shaped Jacuzzi. (3131 Las Vegas Blvd. S., wynnlasvegas.com, 702-770-3900; available to nonresort guests Mon.-Thurs.)

The Spa at Wynn Las Vegas

Woodcliff Lake, NJ

$100 Get Away package

Head to Daydream Spa, housed in a gorgeous old Victorian, for this two-hour sampler that won't break the bank: Choose between a Swedish massage or a facial, followed by a mani-pedi. (116 Broadway, daycreamspa.com, 201-782-0277)

Richmond, VA

$35 spa sampler

A pro from the mobile SPAmerica will come to your home or hotel, and give you a warm neck wrap, hand and eye treatment, shoulder massage and lip exfoliation, all in the time it takes to watch an episode of Friends. (myspamerica.com, 866-883-7957)

Well-Heeled Salon and Spa

Bring It Home

This earthy, masculine scent shows up in incense and the Sandalwood Essential Oil Shaving Cream ($22, artofshaving.com).

just for men

Cool men's salons and spas are popping up all over the country. These reasonably priced packages will make any guy feel like a king.

Exton, PA

$45 straight-razor shave

Regulars come to the handsome barbershop Shaving Grace for the ultimate flat-blade shave, which is essentially a facial for men who don't want to actually sign up for a facial. Plus, they'll get a damn good shave. (369 Independence Blvd., ambiancedayspa.com, 757-497-5511)

Chicago

$44 "the man" haircut package

Halo [For Men] is practically guaranteed to bring out a guy's devilishly indulgent side: sink into black leather chairs, crack open complimentary Red Bulls, and watch the game on flat-screen TVs—all while enjoying a hand massage and paraffin treatment. It all comes as part of the basic haircut package. (Multiple locations including 1655 N. Damen Ave., halochicago.com, 773-342-4256)

Dallas

$50 look-good-fast package

Swing by the tricked out Boardroom Salon for Men, a stylish men's spa with a pool table and chessboards, and enjoy a shampoo and scalp massage, hair cut, hand massage and paraffin dip, plus a minifacial—all in less than an hour. (550 W. Lovers Lane, Suite 169, theboardroomsalon.com, 214-358-7565)

San Diego

$35 full-service haircut

At Well-Heeled Salon and Spa, waiting is half the fun: There's free beer and flat screens tuned to sports. Tear yourself away for the haircut, which includes a scalp treatment, post-cut shampoo (to wash away hairs), warm face towel and even a shoe shine. (350 10th Ave., Suite 101, wellheeledsalonspa.com, 619-338-8385) ■
